APPEAL IS ISSUED FOR THE RELIEF OF STARVING KIDDIES IN FOREIGN AREAS

Executive Committee Places the Plight of Children Before the Public.

MAYOR PAYNE NAMED
MEMBER OF THE UNIT

State Organization Being Perfected to Carry Alabama
Over the Top

Mayor E. C. Payne of Albany has been named a member of the executive committee for the campaign for the relief of the starving children of Central Europe, for whom an appeal was issued several days ago by President Wilson. Erskine Ramsay, of Birmingham, is chairman of the organization.

The following appeal was sent out today by the committee:

To the people of Alabama:
There are 3,500,000 starving children in Europe. Do you care? These children are in no way responsible for their condition. This is one reason of the war.

If these little children were standing in a row with outstretched arms they would constitute a line reaching from New York to San Francisco. They will starve unless America feeds them until their next harvest. Do you care? The future of the race in Europe hangs in the balance. The instinct of self-preservation.

The cry of humanity, the sense of gratitude for our own bread, lead us to respond. What will you do about it? An effort is being made to save these children from actual starvation. The expense of raising funds is being borne by a few systematic friends in order that every cent you contribute will reach the starving children. What will you do about it? Ten dollars will save one child from starvation. How many children will you save? Will you give ten dollars to save one child? Is a child's life worth ten dollars? Alabama is asked to raise not less than $100,000 to save 10,000 children from starving. Will you be one of the 10,000 to save 10,000 children? Let it be a thank offering this happy Christmas time; send your contributions whether large or small.

Letters should be addressed to the "Save-a-Child" fund. The money will be forwarded to J. K. Kirkman Jackson, state treasurer, American Trust and Savings Bank, Birmingham.

The following is the organization of the European Relief Council, Alabama division: Erskine Ramsay, chairman; Harry T. McBroom, executive secretary; Rev. M. S. Barnwell, N. V. Joseph, J. Mercer Barnett, J. Frank Rushton Jr., P. H. Woodall, Victor Hanson, Rev. George R. Stuart, Rev. Father James E. Coyle, Rev. J. E. Dillard, W. S. Stallings, Dr. Morris Newfield, Dr. J. H. Phillips, J. K. Brockman, Mrs. James Bowron, Dr. W. R. Ward, Rev. H. M. Edmonds, Rev. J. A. McClassian, all of Birmingham; Emil Weil, Mrs. Joseph Brevard Jones, Montgomery; J. H. Cranford, Jasper; Edward C. Payne, Albany; M. K. Clements, Athens; J. E. Haffner, Bessemer; Frank M. Moody, Tuscaloosa; Rev. W. B. Clemmons, Marion. The foregoing statement was prepared at a meeting in Birmingham December 16 by the above committee.

A state organization is now being perfected and the committee is therefore incomplete, but the urgency of the appeal demands that no time be lost as the starving children cannot wait.

ERSKINE RAMSAY,
Chairman.

Germany Behind in Her Payments

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Germany is considerably behind with her payments for the upkeep of the American army of occupation on the Rhine, it was revealed by the War Department today. Up to June 30 of this year the cost of maintaining the American forces on the Rhine has been $257,065,084.75. Under the terms of the armistice Germany is obliged to reimburse the United States for the upkeep of these troops but to date has paid only $34,724,058.78, leaving a net balance due the United States of $222,340,425.57, according to War Department figures.

U. S. LEGATION IS LOOTED OF BIG FORTUNE

(International News Service)
WARSAW, Dec. 18.—Robbers broke into the American legation during the night and stole $80,000. Chests and safes were rifled and valuable documents stolen. The headquarters of the American Friends, who are distributing relief to war sufferers, also was robbed of $3400.

HUSTLE IN YOUR SUBSCRIPTION NOW IF YOU WANT IT COUNTED

Campaign Office Will be Open Until Ten O'clock
Tonight to Receive Subscriptions to Apply
Upon the "Opportunity Period" Extra Vote Offer.

"To have or not to have" is the most important point now confronting the contestants in The Daily's campaign. For the wonderful special offer of many thousands of extra credits the contestants are becoming aware that through this brief opportunity their best chances for ultimate success lie, with just a few hours in which advantage can be taken of the offer.

Certain it is that this "Opportunity Period" offer of 55,000 extra credits for every $18 collected and turned in in subscriptions to The Daily is the biggest inducement that will be made during any of the remaining time of the campaign, for after it closes tonight, a shower of credits will envelope those who have made the most of their time. In every section of the campaign territory contestants are deeply engrossed in forming subscription clubs, and, according to advice they have, thus far allowed nothing to escape them. A great many of these clubs it is expected will descend upon the Campaign Department ere the closing hour, and thereby secure those contestants the extra credits. The automobile campaign is the topic of conversation on all sides and will be for many days to come. This is to be expected, however, for this is one of the most important campaigns of the kind ever held in this locality. Why, then, should it not be of the most interest? People in general seem to have taken an interest and grasped the thing in a surprising manner. Everyone has posted themselves on the matter and in the campaign territory they can talk Prize Campaign as well, if not better, than they can talk anything else.

DINSMORE ELECTED PRESIDENT AGAIN OF MORGAN DIVISION OF THE FARMERS UNION

Other Officers Named at Final Session of Quarterly Conference.

NEXT CONVENTION WILL BE HELD IN HARTSELLE

Was One of Most Successful
Meetings in History of Organization.

A largely attended two-days' convention of the Morgan county unit of the Farmers' Union came to an end at Austinville Friday afternoon with the election of the following officers for the ensuing year:

C. M. Dinsmore, president.
Milton Vest, vice-president.
A. C. Denton, secretary-treasurer.
D. M. Thrasher, conductor.
Mr. Cheatwood, doorkeeper.
J. M. Engle, chaplain.

The regular quarterly meeting was one of the most successful in the organization's history. One of the last official acts of the convention was to designate Hartselle as the next meeting place on February 24-25.

The convention was attended by delegates from all sections of the county, 15 locals being represented. The meeting was called to order Thursday by President Dinsmore, who presided at the sessions. Dinner was served on the ground by members of the Austinville local.

Addresses were delivered by President Dinsmore, County Superintendent of Education Hay, County Farm Agent Johnson, Prof. J. D. French of Lawrence county, a state organizer of the union, and others. Mr. Dinsmore received the work the organization has accomplished during the year just closing and the plans for the future. Prof. Hay pleaded for increased rural education facilities and urged the co-operation of all citizens in his work. County Agent Johnson's address was filled with phases of the marketing situation.

The night session was featured by addresses of several visitors from local crafts, including those of George M. Webb and D. C. Jones. A. C. Watson of Austinville also spoke.

School Play by Decatur Students

The expression department of the Decatur City schools presented a play to a large and appreciative audience at the high school auditorium last night. An amusing comedy "Daddy," with Edward Price in the title role. Miss Dorothy Patterson appeared as the fond mother; Miss Annie Mae Gardner as daughter; Brownlow Carl as son; and Miss Mary Bates as aunt Amelia. DeWoody Wilkinson acted the part of a young physician in love; with Lewis Brown as butler and Miss Lanyene Clem as maid, looked after the welfare of the troubled family.

The young Thespians acquitted themselves with much ease and confidence. Seasoned theatergoers admitted that they were well entertained and showered compliments upon the players and their gifted teacher, Miss Margery Raney.

A pleasing incident in connection with this affair, and such incidents are always worthy of public commendation, was that two public spirited citizens freely gave time, and means toward making long needed improvements on the stage of the school auditorium.

G. Henry Watson Edits N. Y. Weekly

G. Henry Watson, of Moulton, well known in the Twin Cities, where he was a member of the editorial staff of The Albany-Decatur Daily, is now editor of the Westside Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published in a suburb of New York.

Mr. Watson went from the Twin Cities to the University of Alabama, where he was correspondent for several newspapers. Later he returned to Birmingham and was engaged on the Age-Herald for a time, going from there to New York, where he began a course in journalism at Columbia University.

Many Are Killed By Earthquake

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Many persons were killed by an earthquake on the island of Sassano, said a Central news dispatch from Rome today. Many houses were destroyed. The dead includes 17 sailors and 2 petty officers. Sassano island lies between Italy and Albania. It was in Albania that an earthquake occurred a week ago killing 200 persons.

WORK IS EXPECTED TO BE STARTED ON DERRICK FOR DRILL EARLY NEXT WEEK

Will Require Three Weeks to Rig Machinery, it is Stated.

DERRICK WILL REACH
85 FEET INTO THE AIR

Johnson expects to go to Cook Springs for an Inspection.

Work is expected to be started early next week on construction of the derrick for the first oil well in Morgan County in many years. The well will be drilled on the English farm, one mile due south of Austinville, to a depth of 3500 feet unless pay oil is found in less distance. The work will be under the supervision of R. A. Berry, who has been here sometime in the interest of the development of the local field.

B. J. Johnson, of Cleburne, Texas, who made an inspection of the fields here, was expected to go to Birmingham today and from there to Cook Springs, St. Clair county, where oil developments on a large scale are looming up. Mr. Johnson declared the possibilities here are the "best I have seen lately."

The derrick for well Number 1 will be built 85 feet into the sky, the height being necessary in order to rig the machinery required for drilling 3500 feet. Persons interested in the development are hopeful of finding oil at a depth of 1200 feet but the drilling contract was boosted to 3500 feet in order that the possibilities may be thoroughly tested.

Shot at Picture To Commit Suicide

(International News Service)
PARIS, Dec. 18.—"Leave me alone. Can't you see I'm dead. I've just committed suicide." This was the strange reply police agents received when they had forced open the door of Paul Soyer's house and asked him what he was doing firing a revolver in such a wild way.

Soyer carries on a small coal trade in Paris while his wife sells vegetables in the streets. It was the latter who gave the police the reason for hunting out Soyer. The woman was seen crossing a bridge shouting wildly: "Hurry, help me; my husband wants to kill me." The coal merchant felt sure he had committed suicide, and the police on looking around for any grounds for such statements found that Soyer had fired six shots into a picture of himself hanging from the wall. He had also shot at his wife's picture.

Barnes Hurt When Automobile Starts

W. T. Barnes was painfully injured Sunday night and is on crutches as a result. While aiding a friend to start an obstreperous machine, it suddenly started, injuring his legs, the left leg and foot so severely that it may be several weeks before full recovery comes. Mr. Barnes is able to attend to business, however.

AUTO BANDITS ROB BIG STORE IN DAYLIGHT

(International News Service)
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 18.—Five bandits who held up William Musch Sr., and his son in his jewelry store on South Broadway today, escaped with $5,400 in jewelry and money. After binding Musch and son, the bandits boldly emptied the show window of the most valuable jewelry in plain view of the street crowds. They then rifled the safe and escaped in an automobile. Police call it the most daring robbery here in recent years.

WITNESS DECLARES MRS. CUTTS TALKED OF GIVING POISON

(International News Service)
MACON, Ga., Dec. 18.—When the preliminary hearing of the cases against Mrs. Pauline Elmer, Mrs. Annie Cutts, Mrs. Ione Henry and Ernest Hopson was opened this morning at 10 o'clock, few spectators were in the courtroom. Solicitor Garrett called John Turner, former tenant for the Cutts at Abbeville, to the stand. Turner said his family lived in Mrs. Cutts' house for the first 20 days after they went on the place because the house for the Turners had not been completed.

"Mrs. Cutts," said Turner, "asked me if I would poison Fred Shepard for her. I said 'no' and she said if I did not do it Ernest Hopson would and Eldridge Cutts would back Ernest up. About three or four days after this I moved to Wayne county and stayed there three or four months. I came back to Abbeville about the first of September—about the time Fred Shepard died," said Turner.

Shepard died on June 1 and this testimony about September 1 caused a laugh among counsel for the defense. Eldridge Cutts then took charge of the witness.

"My wife simply asked you to do some work for her, didn't she?"

"She said if I would do the poisoning, she would see that I got plenty of money and lived on flowery beds of ease. She said she would fix it up if I would give it to Shepard and if I would not, Ernest would do it and you would back him up," said Turner. "I told her, though, I would not do it," Turner said.

"She didn't offer you anything in advance and that's why you said you wouldn't do it, isn't it?" asked Mr. Cutts.

"I simply said I would not do it and she said Ernest would, she would help him and you would back it," said Turner.

Turner said he went to Wayne county right after that and Mrs. Cutts kissed him goodbye. Here a ripple of laughter was heard over the courtroom.

Senators Delay Action on Bonus

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The Senate finance committee, in executive session today, failed to take final action on legislation providing "adjusted compensation" for the men who served in the world war. The committee decided to call Secretary of the Treasury Houston to testify next week as to the condition of the treasury and the ability of the government to pay compensation in any form at this time. Senator Smoot of Utah told the committee a cash bonus would involve an immediate outlay of $1,000,000,000 and he doubted whether the public treasury could stand such an expenditure. Other senators were inclined to scout the feasibility of the passage of the legislation.

GENEVA, Dec. 18.—Roumania's proposal to send an international army to Armenia was rejected by the League of Nations assembly today.

HARDING PLAN ON FUTURE POLICY IS GIVEN APPROVAL

(International News Service)
MARION, O., Dec. 18.—"It is all grist in the hopper," Senator Harding said today in discussing his conferences of the past two weeks. "We are trying to grind out a product that will be sustaining and palatable to the American people."

Senator Harding announced that he had formulated, in his own mind, a plan for an international policy which he believed possible of accomplishment. That plan, he said, had been placed before many of his conferees and he let it be known that he was greatly encouraged over the approval they expressed. Such approval, he indicated, had come from men of every shade of opinion and had been endorsed by thinkers as widely separated as William Jennings Bryan and Senator A. B. Fall.

Senator Harry New will spend the week-end with the President-elect and is expected to discuss at length the present situation in Congress as well as international affairs.

ALBANY CAGE SQUAD MEETS BELLE MINA

FIRST GAME OF SEASON WON FROM AUSTINVILLE BY CLOSE SCORE

The Albany high school's basketball team was billed to play Belle Mina this afternoon in the second game of the season, after having won from Austinville yesterday afternoon by the close score of 15 to 14. The game was hard fought, the winning points coming only in the last 30 seconds of play.

Austinville got the jump on Albany and the first half ended with Austinville leading 9 to 5. Albany showed better form in the second and the team, with a little more experience, is expected to have a good season. Bradshaw and Carroll handled themselves exceptionally well, while Briscoe of Austinville was the individual star of the game.

A good crowd witnessed the game and those who love the sport would do well to attend every contest as they are decidedly interesting and full of pep.

DRASTIC STEPS TO END CRIME WAVE

HOLD-UPS IN NEW YORK CAUSE TERROR AMONG THE POPULACE

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Drastic steps were taken today to bring about a speedy end to the orgy of crime that has terrorized New York City the last few days. Following the issuance of Mayor Hylan's appeal to citizens to cooperate with the police department and to take every possible effort to halt highwaymen, plans were being made to send heavily armed guards with every messenger carrying valuables of any sort. The mayor issued orders to the police to give permits to all persons to carry arms requesting them. Practically all jewelry stores have posted armed guards at the entrance of their stores.

Mrs. Thomas Edgar, wife of a prominent physician, was held up and robbed of valuables estimated at $2000 while driving through Central Park in a taxicab. In another hold-up Carl Tiedman, an automobile salesman, was shot when he refused to submit to being robbed. The highwaymen escaped. He is in a hospital where it was said today he probably will not recover.

GO FORWARD

Forgetting the things that are behind us in war and peace and business and losses, let us press forward that we may regain business, recoup losses that we may recreate prosperity and employment, that we may bring happiness where there is now poverty and sorrow, and profitable employment for the millions now seeking work.

The task before us is big enough to stir the heroic in American manhood, but the prizes to be won are great enough to stimulate all the latent ambitions of every man and woman.

Here are 105,000,000 people, taken as a whole the most virile, energetic and resourceful in the world, living under one flag, untried by the arbitrary dividing lines of European nationalities, occupying as trustees the most richly endowed and superbly located country known to man.

Our resources are beyond the power of our minds to grasp or of words to portray.

Here is almost endless abundance are the resources on which to build an industrial and agricultural wealth greater than that of all the world today.

With 6 per cent of the world's population and 6 per cent of the world's land area, we already produce from 40 to 60 per cent or over of nearly all the greatest products of the world; have nearly half the world's railroad mileage and a third of the world's accumulated wealth, and this wealth is more evenly distributed than in any other country on earth through all the ages of the past or present.

And yet we have scarcely begun to develop our natural resources as measured by their vast extent.

Let us build a mighty network of highways, so badly needed; let us modernize and extend our rail and water transportation facilities, build the million or more dwellings so badly needed, build the schools, hotels and churches required to keep up with our growing population.

There is enough work which needs to be done, and the doing of which would enrich our country, to keep fully employed every laborer in the country.

Down, then, with pessimism and inactivity, and up with optimism and progress! Forward—The Manufacturers' Record.

LIGHTED CHRISTMAS WINDOWS

In a pamphlet sent out by the National Board of Fire Underwriters a warning is shown over the suggestion that persons place a lighted candle in the windows of their homes on Christmas Eve. The board declares the danger from fire greatly outweighs the good motive which prompted the suggestion.

The originator of the plan, no doubt, felt that candles, with their soft light, would approach a nearer conception of the Christ-spirit than would the more glaring electric globes.

A way to have the "lighted windows," without the added danger of fire, is given by the board in the notice sent out by the Red Cross last year—namely, that the shades be raised and the light of the room be allowed to shed its glow outside. The board adds:

Fire prevention forces are spending much time and energy in the effort to educate the public in common sense carefulness. It is therefore disconcerting when a magazine of great influence gives currency to a suggestion which violates the most fundamental dictates of common sense. The reality of the danger involved appears in the fact that figures just compiled by the National Board of Fire Underwriters show that there was approximately $17,500,000 worth of damage done by fires caused by open lights in the years 1915 to 1919, inclusive, not to mention the loss of life incurred.

CHARGING $10 TO SEE IT

On the opening night of "Way Down East" in Chicago, D. W. Griffith charged $10 a ticket. The Tribune comes down on him "like a house a-fire." It not only criticizes Griffith's advertising matter "which summarily disposes of Lottie Blair Parker, who wrote it," but having seen the play, the Tribune writers think $10 "several dollars too much" to charge for a seat. The Tribune notifies Griffith that it will not permit his opening night performance to be reviewed in its columns. "That is not economy," says the Tribune. "It is a protest for whatever it is worth. The same goes for other theatrical gentlemen who celebrate their opening nights by doubling and tripling prices. The silk shirt craze is over. And hereafter no one will make us think he has a good show just by charging $10 a seat for it."

We wonder if the time ever will come when any picture or any spoken drama will be worth $10 to see. We are sure that time has not come yet. So far as Griffith's latest picture is concerned, the Birmingham Age-Herald predicts sooner or later it will be exhibited throughout the country for $1 or less.—Montgomery Advertiser.

HOW OUR MONEY WENT LAST YEAR

The recent report of the United States Treasury Department shows that in our country $1,000,000,000 was spent for candy alone; soft drinks took $750,000,000 and the same amount went for the movies and the total for luxuries and non-essentials amounted to the vast sum of $22,000,000,000. This does not include the sum thrown away on worthless stocks and other schemes. In Europe it is said that 46% of the people have bank accounts while in our country only 11% are depositors. We need a campaign in thrift and frugality surely.

One fifth of the above amount spent for candy in our country would relieve the awful famine conditions in China referred to in Wednesday's paper, one third of the sum spent for soft drinks or for movies or one hundredth that is spent for luxuries in general would help keep alive 20,000,000 people who are now starving in interior China. Our people will do well to send contributions through their churches, Sunday Schools and Societies to the Foreign Mission Boards or funds may be deposited in any of the local banks to the account of J. H. Calvin, Treasurer The Chinese Famine Relief Fund and be sent through the Red Cross or the Christian Herald of New York.

If the contentions over federal office, could be held to 8 hours a day, it would be some relief to the country.

Mrs. Harding doubtless decided on many changes in the White house, during her brief visit to Mrs. Wilson.

There were entirely too many Republican wives is one reason Governor Cox experienced defeat.

We all like the "snow, the snow, the beautiful snow"; but none of us like to be snowed under.

If General Obregon, the new President of Mexico, succeeds in bringing order out of chaos, in our neighbor republic, we might bring him up to help stop the crime wave in the United States.

Mr. Wilson will doubtless find many employments open to him when he quits the Executive Mansion and any one of them would prove a pleasanter task than being President.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS FOR SABBATH AND OTHER DAYS

By J. E. Blair

As long as there is within us that well of water "springing up unto everlasting life of which the Savior speaks—as long as good motives arise in our souls, we may be safe in thinking that "the Kingdom of God is within us." But there are downward looking motives, as well as those that look upward. Those downward motives cause us to kill the good motives to exploit our souls, to destroy the peace of mind of others and to make a mock of holy things. Such aspirations are the opposite of numerous good motives. They spell final ruin! Although you may not be entirely moved by them; as long as you believe in divine motives, your soul is a potential Kingdom of God. When good motives dominate your life, you may truthfully be said to be "born of the Spirit, filled with the Spirit and led of the Spirit."

Always, in youth time there is a super-abundance of generous motives. This is why the Master said that heaven was made up of child hood. This is why the good and great Longfellow, exclaimed in his Morituri Salutimum, "How beautiful is youth, how bright it gleams, with its illusions, aspirations, dreams." And in the same poem he also says: "Young men whose generous hearts are beating high!" We always speak of youth as the time of aspiration, so the only thing to do is to remain young! But if as the years go by, we allow ourselves to grow old, the fountain of generous motives will dry up. We will lose our responsiveness! We will go into our declining years. We will decline public service, and refuse honors that might be ours. In a word one can so live that the days and the years will draw night when he shall say, "I have no pleasure in them." Then instead of having beautiful day dreams, and the nights being full of music, all will be a blur, a blank, and a darkness! How shall such a fate be warded off? The same old advice—"Remember, now thy Creator in the days of thy youth." And especially should God be taken into account in youth time, for He is sorely needed then. The sap of life is up. Our thoughts are but fleeting and shallow. Besides youth is the time when many of the most evil motives seek to rule! In youth personal ambition, is at its height; and always ambition, as it did the foolish angels, is ready to cause us to fall! There is a certain motive of youth, which is his most priceless, viz., the sex motive. To show you how strong the Devil is, he can turn that great and good power of creation into one of the absolute destruction!

How quickly can the sex motives, unless controlled by a clear thinking mind and a good conscience, destroy their owners and place a blight that may out last the third and fourth generations! As it is the part of wisdom, to guard the appetite for food, rather than die of a poisoned body from over eating and drinking, so it is better to withstand the fiery passions, rather than indulge them, until such a time, as when you have no pleasure in them! The same kind of vitality can be yours as was the possession of great Moses. "And Moses was 120 years old when he died and his eyes were not dimmed, nor his natural force abated!" To use a very old thought: What good is the steam made by the boilers at the L. & N. shops, unless it is controlled? Your motives uncontrolled are useless, worse than useless, for unproperly used they can damn you! It might do for people to go ahead and "enjoy themselves" to the limit, if it were not a fact, that it is also "required of thee, to love mercy, do justly and walk humbly with thy God," as the "Lend-a-Hand" Bible class was told Sunday. But one cannot be and do these good things unless good motives prevail unless the very Kingdom of God is within him! Again, because youth's store house is so full, seems to tend to make him a wastrel and spend thrift. All the more fool, is youth, if this is true of him. Youth may lose his soul. All may lose their responsiveness to good motives. "My spirit will not always strive with man."

Even our storehouses of good motives may be exhausted! We are taught that even our ability to believe in God, and in goodness in others may be destroyed. "Who so ever will shall be saved." But we can become so bound about by sin, that we lose the motive or power to will or believe.

Finally, when our storehouse of good motives is empty, can we not conclude that the Kingdom of God is no longer, within us!

PREACH TO GET MEMBERS

Ministers to Aid in Bringing the American Legion Family Number to 2,500,000.

Some one at the national headquarters with a flair for statistics has figured out that four thousand sermons on the American Legion will be delivered in churches all over the land on Sunday, May 16.

Part of the work of posts of the legion in the membership campaign to be waged May 17 to 22 inclusive, has been to enlist the support of clergymen of all creeds. They have been requested to at least make mention of the legion in their sermons of the Sunday preceding the drive. Many rabbis have signified their intention of doing this in sermons delivered Saturday, May 15.

It has not been hard to win the support of these clergymen, because the vast majority already are enthusiastic legion supporters.

One minister of a prominent and fashionable New York city church fairly leaped at the suggestion. He declared he would not only preach an entire sermon urging eligible parishioners to join, but would call on every man and woman to lend active aid in the campaign in some way. He insisted he was going to roll up his shirt-sleeves and get into the campaign himself, even going so far as volunteering to speak from a soap-box in Union square.

Legion leaders expect to get one million new members, at least. This would bring total membership well above the two and a half million mark and would assure the legion a majority of the former service men and women of the land.

The drive is entirely a post and member affair—a campaign of the rank and file. Posts are assigned quotas to reach and will be graded on percentage of efficiency. Departments also will be so graded. National headquarters will give first and second prizes, consisting of stands of colors, to leading departments.

ALL IN ON MAY 17-22 DRIVE

General Public Persists in Manifesting Friendly Interest in Boosting the Membership.

Men at national headquarters of the American Legion are gratified at the wide interest in the forthcoming drive of the legion for new members, by persons in all walks of life. The campaign will be held May 17-22, inclusive.

Although the drive is entirely an organization affair and will be handled by individual posts and members, the general public has refused to be kept out and persists in manifesting friendly interest.

"Every day we see evidences of this friendship of the great American public for the American Legion," said National Adjutant Lemuel Bolles. "We counted on this friendship when we organized for this campaign and every post has appointed a citizen's committee to co-operate with the post drive committee. The way citizens have responded is wonderful. Men of all walks of life, clergymen, teachers, labor leaders, bankers, have united to help the legion attain its goal of at least a million new paid-up members. "The women have been particularly friendly. Housewives have sensed that the legion is the great national force for security of the home and the country's solid institutions and they are rallying to help us. Many a man eligible to belong to the legion has had no peace of mind until he sought out a post and put up his dues and came in. "Besides, the women know about the woman's auxiliary of the legion and that no woman can belong unless her men kin-folks belong to the legion."

Mr. Bolles was authority for the statement that this legion drive will set a new mark in enthusiasm for campaigns in the United States.

Perishing a Legion Booster.

General Pershing is a private in that great army for better Americanism, the American Legion, where rank and titles are non-existent. Apropos of the legion membership drive, held the week of May 17-22, the former C-in-C, says: "I earnestly hope every man who wore the uniform of the fighting services in the war will affiliate himself with the American Legion and strive for the highest realization of the ideals for which that great organization stands."

Every Member Instructed.

Every member of the American Legion, which will hold a nation-wide membership drive May 17-22, has been instructed in a Primer of Legion facts and a Catechism of Legion questions and answers. It is expected that with the use of this data, plus natural enthusiasm, every member will get at least one new member. This would bring legion membership above the two and a half million mark.

Old Veterans as Boosters.

Nine G. A. R. veterans, the entire enrollment of a small Nebraska village, came in a body to post headquarters of the American Legion and demanded they be allowed to take part in the campaign for membership, May 17-22. The oldest was 78 and served with Sherman on his march to the sea. The nine seemed to favor the idea of making speeches at a mass meeting and were enrolled for this purpose.

the citadel of its object, and like an avalanche overwhelms and engulfs all obstacles.

Enthusiasm is nothing more or less than faith in action. Faith and initiative, rightly combined, remove mountainous barriers and achieve the unheard-of and miraculous.

Set the germ of enthusiasm afloat in your campaign for credits; carry it in your attitude and manner; it spreads like contagion and influences every fibre of your industry before you realize it; begets and inspires effects you did not dream of; it means increases in production; it means joy and pleasure and satisfaction to your helpers; it means life, zeal and virile; it means spontaneous bed-rock results—progress, accomplishment and success.

Be Courageous

Have you ever thought of the busy little creatures of the lower kingdom and of their industry? Watch the bee or the ant, and they will teach you lessons well worth your learning. Nothing discourages them; no obstacle is too great for them to surmount when once they have attempted a certain task, and they work with unswerving zeal until they have accomplished seemingly impossible feats. Instinct is a great thing; but brain power and will power are greater. In this campaign, as in most everything else that is worth while, those who are alive and awake to the situation are the ones who invariably succeed. The persons who enter this campaign in a half-hearted way and work accordingly will be the stragglers at the end. The persons who will be declared the winners at the end of the big race will be those who have taken advantage of the short space of time allotted, and made every minute count.

Do It Now!

Now is the time to see your friends and tell them that you expect their support. They in turn have friends whom they can enlist in subscription-getting and vote clipping, and it is just a matter of the interest you take in it yourself.

MRS. CLINE AT BRIDGE

On Friday afternoon the spacious home of Mrs. B. S. Barry, was a scene of true Christmas cheer when Mrs. J. L. Cline was hostess at bridge. About fifty guests were present who after choosing their place cards from a diminutive Christmas tree seated themselves to a most spirited and interesting game, at the close of which it was found that Mrs. Russell Green had captured first prize, a lovely candy jar of French glass marked with gold; Mrs. E. W. McLeod, a cheese server of similar design; and Mrs. C. C. Vold, consolation, a blooming poinsettia.

A most delectable refreshment of salad, coffee, and ices was served. Artistic decorations, all suggestive of the approaching holidays, charmed the eye, poinsettias, Christmas greens, holly and graceful vines, giving an unusually attractive effect.

Mrs. Cline was assisted by Mrs. C. W. McCleod, Mrs. C. W. Hudson, Mrs. Powell Jones, Mrs. B. S. Barry and Mrs. Chas. Leftwich, were gownned respectively in models of black lace satin, turquoise georgette, and canary colored marquisette, and brown lace and satin.

Mrs. Cline's guests were: Mesdames C. M. Kortrecht, Russell Green, W. B. Markstein, Robert Daniels, W. C. Coker of Greenville, Ala., Herbert Odum, Harry Carpenter, J. Y. Hamill, Gordon McDuff, Edwin McGregor, C. W. Hudson, Frank Lide, Wallace Carson, W. H. Driskill, Phil Humphrey, Ammet Hines, W. N. Hall, T. M. Jones Jr., B. F. Austin, B. P. ### W. C. T. U. MEETS WITH MRS. LOVIN

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met with Mrs. J. F. Lovin on Friday afternoon. December meetings are crusade anniversaries and Mrs. J. D. Wyker is giving "Fifty Years of Temperance History." She commenced with the Washingtonians, touching the most important events of that particular time, Good Templars, Crusaders, and finally the triumph of the W. C. T. U. Odes to temperance were read from a hymnal belonging to Mrs. Wyker's father, edited in the early fifties, which were indeed prophetic. Miss Groenendyke's prayer was an inspiration. After business was disposed of the hostess served a "college drink" with cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Long left at noon to spend Sunday at Hartselle.

Mrs. Hobart Parker and son Howard returned today from Louisville, Ky., from a visit to Mrs. B. C. Topp.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Topp and children will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Shedden are the expected guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shelton for the holidays.

Fossil Whale Unearthed.

A rare fossil, that of a Miocene whale, has been found by Dr. Earl L. Packard, professor of geology at the University of Oregon, near Eugene, Oregon.

The relic of prehistoric times, which was found in the cliffs along the beach at Newport, Ore., is, Doctor Packard believes, the finest specimen of fossil whale yet found in North America. Such petrified skeletons are very rare and the extreme age of the recent and makes it of particular interest to scientific men.

Only the skull of the creature has been exhumed from its rocky bed and Doctor Packard is now preparing it for addition to the Condon geological museum of the University of Oregon. The bones are rather small, indicating that the leviathan was young; or, which is more probable, that the leviathans of the Miocene age were markedly smaller than those of the present day.

Fish Not Affected by Tar.

The old question of the effect of tarring roads on fish in neighboring streams has been settled anew at Chesham, England. The main road of the town was tarred last winter for the first time, and this has been followed by the death of large numbers of trout and other fish in the River Chess. A special commission of investigation, however, has now reported that the fish destruction was not a result of the road tarring or of any epidemic disease. The real cause appears to have been poisoning by a temporary increase in the industrial pollution of a ditch which discharges into the river and is practically an industrial sewer.

Thrift in the Paint Brush.

A little attention to details on the part of the housewife will prolong the life of utensils or utilities which cost considerable money to replace these days. The varnish on carpet sweepers soon wears off; unprotected as it is from moisture and variations in temperature, it is likely to fall to pieces. This can easily be prevented by applying a coat of stain finish, obtainable at any paint store. Washing machines should also be protected from variations of temperature and moisture by applying a coat of colored enamel when needed. Porch furniture, screen doors, baby carriages and folding screens should all be thus cared for. Thrift Magazine.

CONVERTED IN STRANGE WAY

Woman Led to See Beauties of Christianity Through Advice Given by Brahmin Theosophist

How a woman was converted to Christianity by a Brahmin is told in the Boston Herald by Miss Lillian Freeman Clarke.

Celia Thaxter, the poetess, was an earnest student of strange and mystical teachings. At one time she was much dominated by the teachings of John Weiss, and she did not appreciate the beauty and power of the Bible. She saw a good deal of a Hindu theosophist named Mohini, and under his guidance came to regard herself as a theosophist.

One day she said to her friend, Mary Parkman, "Did I speak contemptuously of such a person? I ought not to, for one of the principles of theosophy is to feel no contempt for any human being."

Miss Parkman replied: "But did not Jesus teach that? Is it not all in the Sermon on the Mount?" By and by Mohini himself happened to get hold of a copy of the New Testament, and was much surprised and impressed by the beauty of its contents. He spoke of it to Mrs. Thaxter, and found to his amazement that she knew nothing about the New Testament.

"What!" he said. "You do not read your own religious books? I never heard anything more beautiful than this."

Mrs. Thaxter forthwith began to read the New Testament and became so much interested in it that she went about with a copy in her pocket; whenever she had a chance she would read it. From that time she began to attend Phillips Brooks' church. She was converted to Christianity by a Brahmin theosophist.

BIG DAY IN BALBOA'S LIFE

Great Spanish Explorer First Sighted the Pacific Ocean on September 25, 1513.

On Sept. 25, 1513, Vasco Nunez de Balboa had his first peep at the blue expanse of the Pacific ocean, remarks the Los Angeles Times. It was gained from the top of the mountain range at the isthmus of Darien. Four days later, on the 29th, he reached the slopes himself and stood waist deep in the waters. He called it the Great South sea and he took formal possession in the name of the king of Spain, after the manner of the old-time explorers. That was the big day in Balboa's life. He came to the New World as a stowaway and he attained the title of admiral of the Pacific and governor of Panama. Yet four years later he was executed in the public square at Acla on a trumped-up charge of treason. Balboa was an adventurer with the passions of the gambler, the drunkard and the spendthrift; yet as he gathered power and authority he indicated prudence, judgment and foresight. He was a regular scout and now California has a delightful beach and a guarded bay named after him. It would be very proper to call the last week in September Balboa week in this section, for from the discovery to the possession of the Pacific four days elapsed.

The aurora borealis is rarely seen in Central Europe.

POILUS ASK AID IN DEFENSE

Warriors of France Fear Those Who Did Not See May Not Understand.

Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the American Legion, has received the following message from the French war veterans, an organization of service men in France. The letter was transmitted through the New York office of the organization, and reads in part as follows:

"To Our American Brothers-In-Arms: 'COMRADES:

"The Poilus of France make this appeal through us to their American brother-in-arms and say to them in the name of that justice for which they fought together, never forget what you came to do amongst us. By the blood which was shed by us together, in the name of our dead who lie side by side, in the name of all the brave men who bear on their bodies the glorious marks of desperate battles, in the name of all the heroes whom our nations have produced, let us not forget, let us continue together their sacred work, let us unite our countries as our hearts were in the face of death, let us not lose the fruits of such generous efforts, let us so many willing sacrifices, let us look clearly into the future and continue for the maintenance of our liberty and for the honor of our race the battle to which our duty calls us.

"America has gained through her sons in this war the right to immortality. Nations looked on with admiration at the spectacle of millions of young American heroes arriving on the soil of France, to defend the sacred principles of honor and liberty inscribed in the American Constitution.

"Victory has crowned their banners, and the blood shed for a just cause, that is a past which future generations will be proud to claim as a heritage. But the sons of America have not finished their work, our common enemy does not acknowledge his defeat, he hopes when he will have succeeded in sowing the seeds of discord amongst us to renew the fight which he lost, thanks to you. We know that calumny will have no effect on you who have seen with your own eyes what you saw, who know us and know what we are, but we fear that those who have not seen like you may come to doubt us and that is why we send out this appeal to you, comrades, that you may take part in our defense.

"Our cause is yours also, you cannot go back on us, you saw us in action and you know that we do not need any other proofs than our past records to prove to all men of worth that if we fought this war with so much heroism it was because we were defending not only our soil, but the entire world.

"We held back and stemmed the formidable wave of German invasion, almost alone for four years, from the Somme river to Alsace, bearing the brunt of the hardest shocks, our brave men leaving their lifeless bodies by the hundreds of thousands on the fields of battle, without one word of complaint or without asking for quarter, because they knew that if France were vanquished, the principles of the great Revolution were doomed forever, the declaration of the rights of man and the citizen would have been destroyed and trampled on, the poor and humble would have been forced back under the iron rule of lords, might would have prevailed over right, crime and dishonor would have been written as the very heading of fundamental laws of modern nations.

"It must not come to pass that our brave men died in vain, we owe it and you owe it to their memory. The survivors must not sleep on their laurels in false security. You must not imagine that it was we alone whom you helped, you must understand that your liberty was threatened just as much as ours; all nations are more or less dependent on each other. As for us, Poilus, we shall never believe that it was from pity, nor even out of gratitude for help given by us to you in former times, that you came to our aid.

"France dead would have meant the condemnation of the whole world and France would have died rather than go back on her principles. Do not therefore let anyone say you have done enough for her; it was not she whom you helped, it was the ideals and principles for which she always stood and without these ideals of justice and liberty a free nation cannot exist.

"France is still bleeding and will suffer for a long time from the wounds which she received, her young sons cut off in their youth, her lands devastated, her commerce destroyed, her credit diminished. But what makes the greatness of a people is not alone its prosperity. It is keeping its honor unsullied. As long as this sentiment remains in a nation, that nation will live in spite of all oppression.

"Long live America, long live France, united by the blood of their sons. 'CH. BOURNEZ,' 'General Secretary.'

WON LOVE OF POPULACE

But First Bullfight Must Have Been Trying to Nerves of Young Queen of Spain.

When Queen Victoria of Spain was married to Alfonso one of the features of the wedding festivities was a bullfight. The bullfight to Spain is far more important than the baseball game of the United States is to its citizens, and the very life and soul of the people is woven into its traditions.

The queen, a pretty, young, protected English girl whose viewpoint of life was the same as other young girls of the higher classes of England, was privately informed that not only must she attend the fight, but under no circumstances must she exhibit fear or disgust.

The fight was staged with the utmost magnificence and was opened by the entry of two fiery black bulls. The first bull killed a horse or two before it was put to death. The second bull was then driven about, tortured and abused, and finally lured directly in front of the royal box, where a poor old decrepit horse, blindfolded and dragged until it was hardly able to stand, was left. The bull, stabbed with a spear, charged the horse, driving its horns again and again into the wretched beast until it fell, a mass of horror to the ground. The queen did not change color or flinch, although she must have been sick to the point of fainting. The populace greeted her calm with cheers.

Valuable Airplane Device.

Of all the inventions conceived during the last decade, in the hope of decreasing the landing speed of airplanes, none has promised more in preliminary tests than a device recently evolved by the United States bureau of standards, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is nothing more than a simple, variable-camber rib, which is used instead of the ordinary rib, in the construction of one plane of a biplane, or of the top and bottom planes of a triplane. One peculiarity of construction is that the nose of this flexible rib is fixed to the front spar, while the tailpiece is rigid and slides on the rear spar. Another peculiarity is that the rib structure between the spars is normally symmetrical, or uncambered, but is deformed by nonsymmetrical air pressure until it becomes a rib of most pronounced camber.

Rival of the Potato.

The first carload of American-grown dasheens, introduced into this country, to supplement the potato, arrived on the New York market recently, and because of the limited quantities shipped and the demand they sold as high as 15 cents a pound. The dasheens were grown on the east coast of Florida.

The Trinidad dasheen, which is a particularly fine variety of the taro, is one of 46,000 foreign plants introduced into the United States by the Department of Agriculture. It was brought here in the belief that it would yield the South a tuber crop which could be used to supplement the potato. It contains 50 per cent more protein than the potato, according to the Department of Agriculture.

HEAVY ON OPENING

OF LINE IN THE LISTS FOLLOWS MUCH SOUTHERN HEDGE SELLING TODAY

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Southern Hedge selling caused heaviness at the opening of the cotton market. A decline of 6 to 15 points in first prices was followed by further losses so that at the end of the first 20 minutes the market was about 13 to 17 points lower on active position. To some extent bearish weekly statistics operated against new buying and there was continued apprehension over outside conditions. Advances from the South again denoted a poor demand for the spot article.

CHEWING GUM 50 YEARS OLD

John Adams, Photographer of Staten Island in 1870 Discovered the Possibilities of Chicle.

Chewing gum began its history in 1870. Up to this time the chicle or sap from the chiclezapote tree of Mexico was known only to the Indians. A photographer on Staten Island secured a lump of it and sought to turn it to some account. For two years he attempted to make it a substitute for gutta percha or soft rubber. This having failed, he was about to throw it away when he happened to break off a bit and chewed it, according to the Detroit News.

In his photograph gallery back room,
the photographer, John Adams by name, continued to experiment with it, and in time evolved something resembling the gum of today. He began to peddle it about in small lots to nearby candy and drug stores, and by 1880 he was employing 250 hands in a six-story building. He died, leaving a fortune to his four sons of many millions. The "white gum," or "chewing wax" as it was known, was almost driven from the market by the new offering, and today is seldom seen.
It is made from the gum of the New England spruce and from a paraffin that is the residue of crude petroleum in process of refining.

Mental Culture.

Mayor Lunn of Schenectady pointed to a two-page advertisement extolling the marvelous efficiency of a mental gymnastics correspondence school.

"Did you ever try a correspondence course in mental gymnastics?" he asked the reporter.

"No; I don't take much stock in such things," the reporter answered.

"Well, I know a man," answered Mayor Lunn, "who took a three months' mental gymnastics correspondence course, and he's a millionaire today."

Impressive pause.
"To be sure," Mr. Lunn added,
"the man was a millionaire before taking the course, but the extraordinary fact I want to bring out is that since taking it he hasn't lost his money."

Candies have been made successfully

MOTHER GAVE IT

Virginia Lee Suffered With Aches and Pains Until Mother Began Giving Her Cardui.

Dublin, Va.—Miss Mary Alice Hughes, residing on Route 2, near here, recently told a visitor of her interesting experience with Cardui. Miss Hughes said: "I had been suffering for some time with painful... I was pale, didn't feel like going. Would just drag around, and couldn't rest to do any good. I would suffer once a month with my back, sides and head. My limbs would ache and I didn't know what to do, but I knew I must do something, for I didn't get well by letting it run on."

"My mother is a believer in Cardui, for she saw what it did for others as well as herself, so she began giving it to me."

"It wasn't long before I saw a change. It was just what I needed. It regulated me. I began to eat and sleep, and the pain stopped. Cardui is without doubt the best female tonic made, and I am glad I can recommend it to others."

"It suffering with symptoms such as Miss Hughes mentions, or other ailments peculiar to women, why not begin Cardui at once? Its merit is well established by successful use for more than 40 years."

Golden Girl Co.
Will Play Here

Further light on how Manager Cagle managed to obtain "The Golden Girl" for the Princess December 23, was furnished by The Columbia Daily Herald, which declares the Columbia late of the company was cancelled because the Louisville and Nashville refused to allow southbound train No. 7 to pick up the two cars of the company.

The Herald says: "Manager H. H. Jackson of the New Grand has been compelled to accept the cancellation of Victor Herbert's great musical extravaganza, 'The Golden Girl,' simply because the L. & N. railroad refused to allow southbound train No. 7 to pick up the two cars of the company in Columbia that night but would force them to lie over at the Columbia yards until No. 3 train ran on the morning of the 24th, and as the company has dates for Birmingham on the night of the 24th and 25th they could not take the risk of running into the city several hours late. Manager Jackson hopes to secure an engagement of the company early in January when they will be making their return trip back east. The company carries 45 people and a full carload of scenery, etc., requiring two cars to haul the troupe and equipment over the road."

Amusements

"THE DEVIL'S PASS KEY"

AT PRINCESS MONDAY

Scene from VON STROHEIM'S
UNIVERSAL JEWEL PRODUCTION
"THE DEVIL'S PASS KEY"

An almost endless succession of elaborate scenes, all of which enter vitally into the warp and woof of this Parisian story, greet the eye of the spectator who views Erich von Stroheim's latest, Universal-Jewel feature, "The Devil's Pass Key," on view at the Princess Theater Monday.

There is the famous race track in Paris where the Grand Prix, the French turf classic, is run. The audience sees the races, the grand stand filled with the wealth and fashion of Europe, and the boxes containing royalty and the nobility.

There is a panorama of Paris, the city of light and gaiety, showing every familiar landmark from the Garre Du Nord to the Eiffel Tower—the bright streets, the smart shops and the cosmopolitan crowds.

A view of the beautiful gardens of the Seine, with its semi-military garrison following the war—with its refreshment tables in the open air, and the orchestra delighting the crowds with its American jazz selections.

An exact reproduction of the Theater Francaise, showing the beautiful auditorium with its huge audience in correct evening attire; for it is the premiere of a new play, and the wealth of Paris is in attendance. The stage is also shown, with its company of players, and the dressing rooms and green rooms where the actors congregate.

One of the scenes shows the fashionable establishment of Mme. Malot—modest extraordinary, with its score of mannequins who display the extravagant designs for which the shop is famous.

There are also views of the most popular restaurants and cafes of Paris, with their gay cabarets and beautiful women. The story is from the pen of the Baroness de Meyer, and Erich von Stroheim, knowing Paris like a gendarme, has given it a masterly production.

COPIES METHODS OF AMERICA

New Zealand Will Use Gold Dredge Long in Successful Operation Throughout Alaska.

An example of the far-reaching activities of American industry is to be found in a gold dredge that has been designed and constructed in this country, for the purpose of operating in New Zealand gold fields. This dredge, says the Electrical Review, is built by a New York company and is along the type of dredge constructed for operations in Alaskan fields. Power for dredging, pumping and shifting position is furnished by electric motors, while twelve men working four to a shift constitute the crew.

The general method of dredging is as follows: The digging ladder carrying the buckets is lowered and dirt is scooped up. This dirt is dropped on the conveyor belt and is carried to the screen. Here it is screened and washed and the refuse is dropped to the stacker and deposited. The pay dirt that remains is further washed on gold tables or laundries, and then passed to a gold box, where the gold is recovered. Remaining deposits in this gold box are treated about once a week with mercury, so that all the gold is obtained either in nugget or in the form of an amalgam.

HAPPINESS FOUND IN WORK

Testimony of Chauncey Dewey is endorsed by Another Prominent American Veteran.

What is the secret of usefulness above sixty? Let me quote my friend Chauncey Dewey, who says: "I look back over sixty years of continuous effort and when I try to differentiate the causes of my health and happiness I always come back to work. I never yet knew an idle man who was a happy man." It is his reply to those who think the millennium will come when nobody will have to work more than two hours in twenty-four. On his seventy-ninth birthday he said: "With each recurrence of these anniversaries I am more impressed with the permanence of friendship." That is the impression of all who have moved into the later years. We may not see our friends daily but the knowledge that they are in the flesh and in the spirit is a wonderful help and satisfaction. In the currency of friendship giving is getting. Here is a young man of eighty-six who voted for John C. Fremont, who dined with Gladstone, who took part in every Republican presidential convention and campaign since the party began, who believes every year that comes is the best, who has worked all his life, and who has found his happiness in work. The man's creed is this: "The Christian faith of my mother is good enough for me." What could be better?—Gen. Felix Agnus.

REPORTS GAME IN PROFUSION

According to Englishman, East Africa Is a Paradise for the Hunters of Wild Animals.

That part of East Africa which is traversed by the Uganda railway has long been noted as a big-game country, but few stay-at-home Britons realize how plentiful the wild animals are there. A government official, whose work has taken him into one of the game preserves, writes as follows in the London Post from a camp pitched only four miles from the railway and within twenty miles of Nairobi:

"As I sit writing in my tent I can see through the door at least four thousand head of game feeding on the plains. There is one group not four hundred yards away. They consist of wildebeest, hartbeest, Grant's gazelle, Thomson's gazelle, impals, ostriches, waterbuck, eland and hundreds of zebra. I have never seen anything like it in any other part of Africa, and, as you know, I know something of the game districts of southern Rhodesia, the Belgian Congo, the Tanganyika territory and the Portuguese territory near the Ruyuma."

Effective Trespass Sign.

There is one thing the week-end outers from a city are afraid of. That is poison ivy and poison oak. They may figure out a way to circumvent the bulldog which the sign tells one to "beware of," and they do not always heed threats of legal action mentioned on signs. But they have wholesome respect for poison vegetation. It means pain and loss of time from work or pleasures. When a rancher of California came to the point of despair in regard to keeping trespassers from his thickets, and tired of removing litter and repairing fences and trees he resorted to a plan that proved to be effective in almost a hundred per cent of cases. He placed at the several points of entrance to his property signs that read: "Danger! Poison Oak! Keep Out!" This did the work better than threats or watch dogs; for the vacationers could not know just when they might stumble on to the source of irritating trouble.

Y. W. C. A. Abroad.

Fifteen more young women sailed for Europe during September and October under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. to carry on in several countries work that has grown out of the war activities of the association. Spelal work for girls and women is enlarging constantly in many countries, and new leaders are being recruited to meet the demands. They fill positions as executives, cafeteria directors, physical training teachers, industrial girls' workers, club leaders and recreation leaders. The fifteen who have sailed most recently are going to the near East, Roumania, Italy, Belgium, France and Russia. Others have left for China, Japan and India.

Monument Guards Dangerous Road.

As Los Angeles boulevard comes to an end at the edge of a high embankment over a park lake, incautious motorists have gone over several times, but with fortunate results. To guard against a repetition of such accidents a monument to the memory of Gen. Harrison G. Otis, distinguished as a soldier and journalist, which will completely block the end of the road, has been erected, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The group is composed of a life-sized figure of Gen. Otis; at his left is the figure of a soldier, while at the right of the central figure is a newsboy crying his wares.

An After-War Bride.

A returned soldier and his sweetheart called on a judge to marry them, and, apparently satisfied with his work, he said to Vic: "Salute the bride." For an instant the groom was flustered. Then he took two steps to the rear, came to a distinct halt, clicked his heels together, and gave Mrs. Vic one of the "doughboys' finest." "Oh, well, I guess that will have to do," sighed the judge as he signed the license.—Argonaut.

DINNER ENJOYED

AT LYONS HOTEL

DIRECTORS OF NORTH ALABAMA
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION MEET

Following the regular meeting of the directors of the North Alabama Building and Loan Association yesterday a dinner was enjoyed at the Lyons Hotel. With Clyde Hendrix, S. A. Lynne, J. S. Patterson, W. E. Shirley, A. T. Hanson, Foster H. Pointer, J. A. Thomas, Dr. T. G. Morrow and W. R. Shelton, a delightful repast was enjoyed—just a good fellowship, get-together gathering at which story and pleasantry sandwiched a quail dinner that put all in the best of humor. The real host of the occasion was W. E. Shirley, who, by his expertness with firearms, had provided the necessary toothsome bird and to whom a rising vote of thanks was given for his consideration.

The loan association is nine years old, owns no real estate and has on its books only live loans. The record is especially unique, from the fact that during these years foreclosures have been resorted to only on three occasions, an average of one every three years, and of these two were redeemed. With the exception of W. H. Aycock and D. F. Green, who were out of the city, all members of the official board of the association were present, W. R. Shelton being a guest of the occasion.

Encouraging Prickly Pear Growth.

The Department of Agriculture is promoting the distribution of the best varieties of prickly pears, and is aiding farmers in starting a plantation of them throughout regions of the Southwest, adapted to the growth of the plant. The crop is seeded by plowing under slabs of the cactus, cultivating the crop, which is harvested and usually hauled to the feeding lots. As eight times as much tonnage can be obtained under cultivation as where grown on pastures uncultivated, the intensive method is preferred.

Ships That Carry 16-Inch Gun.

We have ten battleships under construction which will carry the 16-inch gun. Of these, four, the Colorado, the Maryland, the Washington and the West Virginia, will mount eight 16-inch guns, and the Indiana, the Iowa, the Massachusetts, the Montana, the North Carolina and the South Dakota will each mount twelve 16-inch guns.

"The DEVIL'S PASSKEY"

A picture of Paris, the wicked and Paris, the wonderful

BETTER THAN "BLIND HUSBANDS"

Do you know what the devil's passkey is? Do you know who uses it? Would you know it if you saw it? What is its price? Can it be bought? There is a way, says Paris, to every woman's heart—and Von Stroheim, who knows his Paris as you know the rooms you live in—shows you what it is, in the most sensational photo-drama of many years. A picture which every well-known critic has pronounced one of the wonders of the screen—for suspense, for detail of plot and setting, for the very human people who meet here the one great crisis of their lives. See "THE DEVIL'S PASSKEY" without fail. It was created by a man who knows—and who knows you know.
